

ADDITIONS TO THE REMINGTON® SPORTSMAN™ LINE INCLUDE TWO NEW FOLDERS AND HANDY CAMP SAW

Madison, NC – Highly functional and constructed of durable materials, the Sportsman Series line of knives and utility tools provide a full range of heavy-duty, cutlery products for use in the field or on the job. Joining this series are the Black Delrin® Pocket Folders in 12 popular offerings; the easy-handling F.A.S.T.™ (Fast Action Soft Touch) Folders in 3 versions with choice of black or stainless blades; and a compact Folding Camp Saw.

Sportsman Series Black Delrin Pocket Folders – Featuring black Delrin stag handles and satin-finished 440 stainless steel blades, these traditionally-styled, pocket folding knives are available in 12 classic designs. Each has brass liners and satin finished stainless steel pins and bolsters. These handsome folders are adorned with a silver circle shield with “R” logo on the face handle and etched Remington Sportsman Series logo on the primary blade. For a complete listing of the knife designs, blade offerings and overall closed lengths please refer to the chart below.

Sportsman Series F.A.S.T. Folders – Conveniently designed for quick one-hand opening, these functional knives feature a 3 5/8-inch clip point blade with serrated lower edge constructed of 440 stainless steel and easy-grip, rubber-coated stainless steel handle for those demanding jobs in the field. The innovative thumb collar provides for quick, one-handed opening of the blade. The rubber-coated handle has a soft feel, but provides excellent grip and control when working in less than ideal conditions. When opened, the F.A.S.T. knife has an overall length of 8 5/8-inches and a closed length of 5-inches. Available in three versions – Mossy Oak® Obsession® Camo Handle with Stainless Blade or Black Blade; Advantage® MAX 4-HD® Camo Handle with Stainless or Black Blade; and Matte Black Handle with Stainless or Black Blade. Each folder features a convenient pocket clip that matches the blade finish. Once you use them, these “Fast Action Soft Touch” knives will never leave your hands.

Sportsman Series Folding Camp Saw – The perfect tool for your backpack, this versatile folding camp saw is constructed of an 18 3/4-inch high carbon steel blade; silver anodized, extruded aluminum frame; and impact-resistant, black ABS handle. The easy fold-up design provides for ease of assembly with quick release button or disassembly in a matter of seconds to a convenient 22 1/2-inch closed length. Weighing in at just less than 18 ounces, this handy saw is a great carry tool that delivers in performance with its rugged construction.
