

SPARTAN GUNWORKS™ BY REMINGTON

At the 2004 SHOT Show, Remington announced the formation of a new division, Spartan Gunworks by Remington, bringing a line of value-priced shotguns to the U.S. marketplace. The initial offering of seventeen high-quality, break-action shotguns became available through major chain retailers, beginning in July 2004.

For 2005, Remington is pleased to announce the expansion of the chain retail offerings as well as introducing an extensive line of affordable shotguns and rifles which will be available through wholesale distribution.

Remington continues to be the industry leader in bringing high-quality, value-conscious products to the end-consumer.
