Tom,

Do not change anything on the M24 as it is fine as it is. As you know, we cannot unilaterally change the configuration of the system just because we want to.

If you are happy with the M-24 performance - I can live with holding back on the change and meeting what SAAMI calls for on it until further reviewed. However, my stand for the 700P Police rifle and the 40XS still hold firm. I will be back to Steve on his answers shortly.
