WalMart Quality

Thank you for your inquiry. The firearms shipped to WalMart are of the same quality as those shipped to other distributors. They are not picked over or of a different quality. They order high volumes of certain models, usually the less expensive models, such as the 870 Express or the Model 700 ADL. They do not usually get requests for the higher end firearms in their stores, such as our 332 over/under, 700 Sendero, or the Sporting shotguns.
