

A large, stylized watermark is printed diagonally across the page. The text "WILLIAMS v. REMINGTON" is written in a bold, sans-serif font. Each letter is composed of a dense pattern of small dots, giving it a textured, halftone appearance. The letters are arranged in a staggered, overlapping manner, with "WILLIAMS" on the top line and "v. REMINGTON" on the line below it. The watermark is oriented from the bottom-left towards the top-right of the page.
