After this page: Contains posters of the Industry propaganda campaign involving the safe use of [defective] firearms – To put the companies “in a more secure position with respect to product liability,” involving their known deficiencies in their products.

Contribution from Remington Arms Company:

“Don’t Trust a Safety – A Safety is a Mechanical Device
Its not a substitute for common sense and safe gun handling”

Contribution from Ruger ( 3 Screw Handgun):

“Always carry handguns with the hammer down on an empty chamber”
