

2000 Firearms Business Review

- Continue to enjoy double-digit increases in order volume in most major product categories.
- Firearms production remains the same as 1999, resulting in some supply shortfalls.
- New products for 2000 were very successful.
- Key financial metrics show continued improvement.

Business Outlook For 2001

- Trade inventories of Remington long guns will provide positive momentum for most of next year.
- November election results are likely to create another run on firearms and ammunition products.
- Industry and trade consolidation will continue at an accelerated pace.
- Additional government regulation of the industry, its trade channels and its end users are highly probable.

Strategic Initiatives

- Continue aggressive capital investment in plant equipment and operating systems.
- Lower cost with continued improvement in quality.
- Continue to keep supply tight
- Lead the industry with innovative new products.
