Dear Jimmy,

We apologize for any inconvenience you may be experiencing with your Model 700. If in the US, we recommend taking/shipping the firearm to one of the following Remington Premier Repair Centers for inspection. We do not have a recall on this model, however, we are offering a modification program on some of the Model 700's, please click on the link below for information on the modification program:

i have a model 700 bolt action 300 win mag. my rifle fired a shot three days ago while the safety was on and i was told by another hunter that the company had a recall on my firearm because of this. i can not find anything on the web site about this. is this true and if so how do i go about getting it taken care of. i just bought this rifle about a year ago.
