Dear Mr. Rowe,

The Model 700 barrel does not interchange with the Model 600 Mohawk.
Sorry.

For your convenience we have included a link below to a list of establishments that may offer parts or services for your older Remington firearm:.

Thanks again Chris, you have been very helpful. Please pass this message onto your supervisor... "atta boys" don't come along too often no matter where you work!

ok...I promise last question...would a .308 short barrel (22 inches) made for a model 700 fit on the 600 Mohawk? If so could your custom shop do that? Promise this is the LAST question.
