Thank you for contacting Remington Country. The ISS safety key can be ordered direct from the factory. It retails for $3 plus shipping and tax. We request that you forward your order by fax or mail to the following, with a clear copy of your valid driver's license in order to ensure that we are sending the key to an adult.

The Sendero was discontinued for 2005. By the serial number, your Sendero was produced in 2000. The BDL was produced around 1969.

Can you tell me when my two rifles were manufactured by their serial #? My BDL's serial # is 6281260 and the Sendero's is E6679266. The BDL has the bolt lock feature-the bolt can only be operated when the saftey off. The Sendero was bought used without a "J" key for use on the bolt shroud safety feature. Are they free from Remington? Also, do you still make the Sendero rifle, as I cannot find it on your website.

Thank you for your help.
